Course Description:

This highly interactive and practical session will show busy teachers how to bring feedback to the forefront of classroom and online learning. Learn how to create 'Triple E Feedback': Feedback that is Easy, Effective and Engaging. Find out how to use feedback to identify and close gaps in learning and to empower pupils as active participants in the feedback process. Learn to look after your own wellbeing by working smarter and not harder.

Learning Objectives:

- To provide teachers with an overview of what the research tells us about the efficacy of feedback.
- To introduce practical approaches for developing what John Hattie describes as 'assessment literate learners'.
- To provide a wide range of practical strategies for creating feedback that is both engaging and accessible for all learners.
- To equip busy teachers with tools to make marking and feedback manageable and time-efficient.

Delegates receive:

- Completion Certificate
- Take-away resources
- Essential Reading List
- Optional Post Online Support
