Course Description:

A practical guide to managing behaviour in classroom and creating a positive, purposeful working environment. Jam-packed with realistic, tried-and-tested techniques that really work, this training will help class teachers to feel confident about dealing with difficult pupils, settling noisy classes and trouble-shooting disruptive behaviour with immediate effect.

Isabella will also draw on how the current situation may be adversely impacting on pupil behaviour and in this session will provide practical techniques for reinforcing classroom protocols and expectations.

Learning Objectives:

- Strategies for effectively reinforcing your school's policy and classroom expectations on social distancing and keeping safe at school.
- Understand the reasons why people misbehave
- Stop off-task chatter
- Handle low-level classroom disruption more effectively.
- Use effective spoken and body language.
- Find out how to support pupils who struggle to focus and keep them on task
- Know how to avoid confrontation and escalation
- Uncover clever tricks with gestures, language choice and tone
- Understand the most effective ways to use praise and reprimand
- Discover how to respond when pupils say "No"!
