Course Description:

Best practice indicates that Designated Safeguarding Leads (DSLs) should have regular opportunities to reflect on and improve their practice.

This essential update does just that; you will reflect on new research from this academic year that is pertinent to current issues in schools and identify how best to incorporate it into your practice.

You will have the opportunity to identify the issues that starting this academic year will present and how to overcome them.

You will have the opportunity to discuss these challenges with your colleagues from other school

Learning Objectives:

You will have:

- Reviewed the induction and training for new starters.
- Reviewed the new researched relating to the neglect of children in affluent families and identified issues for your school.
- Identified safeguarding issues relating to the on-line world relevant to your school.
- Identified your priorities for this year and created an action plan
