

Asking... Not Telling!

Mastering the skill of deeper questioning

Touchpoints:

1. Develop the skills needed to enhance deeper learning.
2. Encourage student engagement and independent thinking by moving away from didactic teaching.
3. Implement practical classroom strategies to prompt effortful thinking.
4. Master adaptive questioning to support, stretch, and challenge students at different starting points.
5. Use questioning to develop critical and analytical thinking in your pupils.
6. Build pupils' resilience and positivity through strategies that encourage learners to push their boundaries.
7. Use metacognitive questioning to encourage deep thinking in students.

Who is it for?

- All classroom teachers
- Teaching assistants

What will it do?

Enable you to master the art of effective questioning and enquiry-based learning that challenges pupil thinking.
